

Best Declutter Supply List

Gather up these items before you start a big decluttering project. The kitchen apron can be used to stash your small, most-used items. The bin or portable file box can be used to store the rest of the items.

Kitchen apron with big pockets (put the following in the pockets)

- permanent marker
- pocket knife (or multi-purpose tool)
- dust cloth
- cell phone (for lists, notes about things, scheduling tasks, music!)
- pen and a pad of sticky notes (for temporary labels)

Small bin or portable file box (fill it with these)

- label maker
- scissors
- tape
- paper clips
- a few re-sealable bags (to put little items in or keep things together)
- stapler
- 3 hole punch
- file folder labels
- file folders (temporary paper holders/sorters)
- clipboard (with a decluttering plan/list)
- timer (or watch)

Other things to have on hand

- dust buster or vacuum cleaner
- water bottle
- snacks
- empty boxes (for donation, sell, projects)
- trash bags and trash can
- recycle bin
- laundry basket or bin (for returning items)
